Do a little spelling test with someone at home.

Make a list of all the words you know beginning with the letter A. Take a photo of these words and send it to me on the Seesaw App. Let's see how many you can get and see if you can beat my B word list.

An Ghaeilge

Monday:

- Revision: Craic le Litriú Pg. 38 “ An Siopa éadaí”. Learn the first two words and draw a picture of these words with the word written underneath.
- Bua na Cainte Pg. 65 Follow the conversation and read aloud. Write the sentences. Repeat the question and the answer out loud, once it is completed to check your work.

Tuesday:

- Revision: Craic le Litriú Pg. 38 “An Siopa éadaí”. Revise the first two words. Learn the next two words and draw them with the word written underneath.
- Bua na Cainte Pg. 66. Read the small written piece about Niamh a few times out loud. Write in the missing labels on your school uniform

Wednesday:

- Revision: Craic le Litriú Pg. 38 “ An Siopa éadaí” . Revise the four words you now know. Learn the last two words and draw them with the word written underneath.
- Bua na Cainte Pg. 67. Read about Ruairí at the top of the page. Next read about Oisín underneath. Fill in the missing words or if you like you can write the whole piece about Oisín onto your page.

Thursday:

- Revision: Craic le Litriú Pg. 38 “ An Siopa éadaí” . Revise the 6 words you now know. Spend some extra time on any tricky words. Try to notice any little spelling patterns in the words (a small English word perhaps) to help you remember the words. Draw a person in an outfit of your choice and label the items with you spelling words.
- Bua na Cainte Pg. 68. This is a written piece about a pirate. Read the piece aloud a few times to practise new vocabulary. On your page draw a quick sketch of your own pirate. Read aloud the instructions on the page. These instructions will tell you what colour each item of clothing should be. Take a picture of your completed piece and send it to me!

Friday:

- Revision: Craic le Litriú Pg. 38 “ An Siopa éadaí” . Revise all the words. Can somebody give you a little practise test, where you can write them on a piece of paper?
- Bua na Cainte Pg. 69. Read the written piece about Niamh a few times aloud. Now look at the piece about Róisín. First read the labels on her clothes. Next write out the sentence with the missing words. E.g. Tá stocaí uirthi.

Maths

Number Facts Pg54+55. Please complete the daily activity each day and practice chanting the tables from the tables sheet, this can be found in the maths worksheet document.

Daily worksheets can be printed off or if you don't have the facility to do so, just do your best to copy the activities down.

Simple ideas for your

Monday-

Give your child 12 items (could be grapes, little pieces of paper, cheerios, lego pieces, coins, pegs) , they must share out these items with you. Encourage your child to count the items before they start and then count how many they get when they have been shared. You then demonstrate saying '6 is half of 12' , they then repeat this. Repeat this activity using different amounts of items.

Tuesday-

Give your child a square shape paper towel, tissue or piece of paper. Ask them to fold it into 4 equal parts. Ask them how many ways they can make quarters.

Wednesday-

Give you child various size containers to fill with water/flour/sand so they're roughly one quarter full.

Thursday-

Give your child playdough if you have some, encourage you child to make shapes and to cut them into halves and quarters.

Friday-
