

Monday 11th – Friday 15th May

THEME: SUMMER!

MATHS:

Tables: Revision of 3s and 6s multiplying and dividing.

Be a Tables Champion at home!

TABLE TOPPERS: The Seventy Fivers Page 71.

For those of you who have already completed this page I am attaching another tables activity sheet.

Don't worry if you can't print this sheet, just copy down the questions. I will put up the answers on Friday.

MENTAL MATHS: Week 28. Pages: 83, 84 and 85.

I will put up the answers on Aladdin each day.

COPYWORK: Aim for two sums a day and check your answers using a calculator.

$$0.53 + 8.21 + 4.35 =$$

$$12.26 + 15.45 + 17.91 =$$

$$24.51 + 23.52 + 26.45 =$$

$$16.28 + 23.60 + 8.09 =$$

$$5.90 - 3.28 =$$

$$8.45 - 3.90 =$$

$$24.26 - 12.30 =$$

$$29.50 - 7.64 =$$

$$12.3 \times 3 =$$

$$22.5 \times 6 =$$

Remember to write down these sums vertically and to put the decimal points directly under each other.

3 D Shapes Activity Page: Again, don't worry if you can't print this page, just do the work orally or write it into your copies.

The important words to note are FACES, EDGES and VERTICES. Open your Mental Maths books on page 96 to help you answer the questions!

Can you find these shapes in your home? Make a list!

ENGLISH:

READING COMPREHENSION: "Summer in Ireland".

Read the attached pages and answer the questions as best you can. There are three levels, pick the one that suits you best.

ALPHABOX: Draw out 26 squares in your copy and fill in each box with as many “summer” words as you can think of!

e.g. a = air-conditioning

b = beach, bikini, bees

c = cones, camping

POEM: “Windows” by Lenore Hetrick. Try and learn this lovely poem off by heart!

Compose your own “Summer” poem.

You could do an acrostic poem or a sense poem, using your senses (Summer looks like... Sounds like... Smells like.... Feels like...)

SPELLINGS: Unit 27. Do as many as you can and be a spellings champion on Friday!

Start or continue your School Closure Diary! Again you can email me some of your diary if you would like to share your thoughts and accounts of your daily activities.

DEAR(drop everything and read): Continue filling in your reading log aiming to read for at least 15 minutes each day. You can email me your log when you have it completed!

I'd love to know what interesting books you've read so far! Maybe you could recommend a book to the rest of the class!

INTERESTING WORD LIST: Keep a list of new or interesting words you come across in your reading.

You might enjoy the following websites:

David Walliams' Daily Story;

<https://www.worldofdavidwalliams.com/elevenses/>

There are some free online books available at:

<https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/for-home/find-a-book/library-page/>

GAEILGE:

LITRIÚ:

Ag snámh = swimming

Ag tumadh =diving

Ag lapadaíl =paddling

Bríste snámha = swimming trunks

Culaith shnámha = swimming suit

Trá = beach

Buicéad = bucket

Spád = spade

Gaineamh = sand

Picnic = picnic

Bád = boat

An fharraige = the sea

Aim for three a day if you can and test yourself on Friday. I am attaching three activity pages based on these spellings. Again, don't worry about printing these pages, just do the activities orally or draw/write them out if you have time.

Explore the website,

<https://www.seideansi.ie/index.php>:

There are lots of nice reading activities and games on it. Bain taitneamh as!

SESE:

Our theme this week is Summer and the weather is supposed to be quite good so I would love to see pictures of you out and about enjoying nature around you within your 5km radius! Look out for bumblebees, swallows, pretty summer flowers etc.

MINI PROJECT: Chat to your parents or grandparents (on the phone) and ask them what they remember about summers when they were little!

Questions might include the following:

Did you enjoy your summer holidays?

What is your best “summer” memory?

What games did you like to play?

Did you go on holidays to the seaside or somewhere else?

How did you get to the beach? By car/ bus/ train?

Did you have a summer job?

COMPETITION REMINDER:

Don't forget to email in pictures of your work for our draw if you haven't already!

Remember you can email in pictures of your Fashion Project, your picture of a well dressed Emperor, your " I Am" poem or a picture from your dress up day! All entries received by Wednesday lunchtime will be put into a draw for some prizes!

P.E.:

Enjoy ten minutes of physical activity each day on <https://rtejr.rte.ie/10at10/>

(Try it in Irish every second day)

If you enjoyed this website last week you might like to give it a go again.

<https://www.youtube.com/user/CosmicKidsYoga>

Get as much exercise as you can.

Continue to enjoy Go Noodle and Just Dance.

MUSIC:

Make a list of summer songs and try to learn one off by heart!

RELIGION:

Keep up your daily prayers!

Try and do one kind deed every day for your Mam, Dad or someone else in your family or neighbourhood.

ART:

Draw, paint or use any materials you have to design a summer scene.

You may also enjoy these websites:

<https://www.mrsbrownart.com/>

<https://www.youtube.com/user/ArtforKidsHub/>

