

Hi,

My name is Bobby and I am feeling very sad. I am going to my friend's house to play after school and we are going down to the pond. My friend Sid wants me to swim in the pond. He said we could have a competition to see who can catch the most fish but I am scared. I can swim in the swimming pool but I don't think it would be safe to swim in the pond. How do I tell my friend? Please help me.

From Bobby
