

Unit 23: The Seashore – A Habitat

DID YOU KNOW?

A habitat is a place where animals or plants live naturally. Hedgerows, rivers, ponds and the seashore are all habitats. Different animals and plants live in each one.

- A Write a list of the different materials you would find on a beach. Use the pictures to help you.

rocks,

- B Write the names of these animals found at the seashore. Use the word box and clues.

lobster starfish jellyfish barnacles sea urchin mussels

- Clues:
1. A lobster defends itself with powerful pincers.
 2. Barnacles attach themselves to rocks.
 3. Jellyfish look like jelly and starfish look like stars.
 4. A sea urchin looks like a ball with spikes.
 5. Mussels are blue or brown. The shell protects the creature living inside.

