

DID YOU KNOW?

Plants grow at the beach too. Seaweed, lichen and different grasses are common sights at the seashore.

C Write the missing words. Use the word box.

rocks water seaweed sand sea plants mussels lichen clean animals jellyfish

Ireland is surrounded by the _____ and the seashore is where the sea and land meet. The seashore is made up of r _____, s _____, w _____ and stones. Many different _____ and _____ are found at the seashore. _____, _____ and lobsters are examples of some of the different animals. Some of the plants found at the seashore are _____ and _____. Keep our beaches _____.

D Write true or false.

- 1. Starfish are a kind of plant. _____
- 2. Crabs are found at the seashore. _____
- 3. Seaweed is a plant. _____
- 4. Sand and rocks are part of the seashore. _____
- 5. A sea urchin is a plant. _____

E Have you been to the seashore? What did you like best about it?

F Write 5 safety rules for the beach. Think about pollution, safety and access.

- 1. _____
- 2. _____
- 3. _____
- 4. _____
- 5. _____

G Draw a picture of the seashore. Include some seashore plants and animals.